

Canadian Pandemic (H1N1) 2009 Flu Guide

REGISTER NOW at

www.CanadianFluGuide.ca

to access online, interactive case-based continuing education related to the diagnosis, treatment, management and planning for pandemic (H1N1) 2009 influenza

ACCREDITATION

This program has been accredited by The College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 7.5 Mainpro-M1 credits

The Manitoba Pharmaceutical Association recognizes accreditation provided by The College of Family Physicians of Canada.

Proud to provide and promote high quality continuing health education programs, GlaxoSmithKline fully supports the ethical standards of Canada's Research-Based Pharmaceutical companies (the Rx&D's Code of Marketing Practices)

Canadian Pandemic (H1N1) 2009 Flu Guide

REGISTER NOW at

www.CanadianFluGuide.ca

Scientific Advisory Committee Chairs

Karl Weiss, MD, MSc, FRCPC
Montreal, Quebec

Alan Kaplan, MD, CCFP(EM), FCFP
Richmond Hill, Ontario

Program Learning Objectives

As a result of participating in this program, you will gain a better understanding of:

- Pandemic (H1N1) 2009 virus evolution
- Vaccines
- Infection control
- Diagnosis
- Antivirals
- Pandemic planning resources

Online CHE Learning Activities Include:

- Interactive case studies
- Slide presentations
- Interactive diagnosis & treatment algorithm
- Medical animations

All content is downloadable.

Material that is offered may be integrated into staff training and patient education resources regarding pandemic (H1N1) 2009.

Registration is free and may be completed at
www.CanadianFluGuide.ca

The Canadian Pandemic (H1N1) 2009 Flu Guide Educational Program has been developed and published by Mechanisms in Medicine Inc.

H1N1) 2009 Flu Guide

REGISTER NOW at